Acknowledgements

First and foremost, Madeline would like to thank God for calling her to a life enriched by music and giving her the strength to pursue her dream. She would also like to thank her parents for nurturing her love of music in a household that never lacks the sounds of piano or violin within its halls. She is very thankful to Amy Thiaville and Nadja Salerno-Sonnenberg for their dedication to her violin instruction and personal artistic growth at Loyola. Her other teachers, especially Dr. Montes and Dr. Goertzen, have never been lacking in encouragement and have continued to push her higher and higher in her studies and practicing. She is very grateful for her best friends and loved ones who have supported her in her music and daily life. Finally, after withstanding two injuries in three years, she is grateful for the physical therapists who have helped her in recovery. She is grateful that you all are here and hopes that you will enjoy the program.

Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre; Sing praises to Him with a harp of ten strings.

Psalm 33:2
